

SAMPLE RESPONSE TO CRITICAL RACE THEORY BLOG AND YOUTUBE POSTS

(Explicitly Christian Response Message)
(194 words)

This message (above) comes from “critical race theory,” which judges everybody based on their skin color or where they were born. I reject the whole idea. Each individual human being bears the image of God, having many attributes conferred by God. Uniquely, humans were created “a little lower than the heavenly beings,” and were “crowned with glory and honor.” (Gen. 1:26-27; Ps. 8:5; Heb. 2:7).

We must treat each other exactly as we would treat God’s most special creation. The Ten Commandments describe the relationships and duties of humans to God and fellow humans. (Ex. 20:2-17; Deut. 5:6-21) People must be judged by their individual qualities and actions. Each human must be equal before the law and treated with equal respect and dignity, regardless of race, color, or any category membership. (Lk. 10:30-37; Gal. 3:28)

Jesus Christ didn’t say people should group everybody into factions so they can fight over political power. (Mark 12:28-34) All I see from critical race theory people is nonstop name-calling, and dividing people up by category so they can resent, fight, and even kill one another. I reject that hateful theory and will resist it to the end.
